My good friend Brian/N2BTD asked if I could activate the Washington-Rochambeau Trail in MA. I have activated the trail at a number of places in RI but never in MA. After investigating the trail location I found it runs through Attleboro and North Attleboro very near where my daughter and her family live. I found a spot that might have been there when Washington made his way through and put 30 in the log on mostly 40m SSB in about30 minutes

Happy Thanksgiving to all. 73 and POTA on. de KC1NDQ
